Celebrating 65 Years of Faith, Hope, and Charity

Over the past 65 years, countless individuals - both clergy and laypeople, have selflessly shared their time, talents, and resources to help make Transfiguration of Our Lord Church a vibrant place of worship, where we come together to give thanks to God for all the blessings we've received. Let us carry on this legacy by continuing to glorify God and praying for the salvation of souls.

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Holy Spirit comes to solemnly attest to the divinity of Jesus at the moment in which he performed, like any man, the penitential gesture, having undergone the baptism of John. During his earthly life, Jesus will never show himself as great as in the humility of his gestures and words. Following Christ means undertaking this path of humility, that is, of truth. Christ, true God and true man, teaches us the truth of our being. Wounded by sin, purified by baptism, we oscillate between the two extremes, both attractive, of evil and holiness. And this is experienced in the humblest daily life. At every step we can choose God and his love, or, vice versa, reject it. Following in the footsteps of Jesus means ensuring a path that, despite being narrow and stony, leads to eternal life, to true bliss.

BATTESIMO DEL SIGNORE

Lo Spirito Santo giunge ad attestare in modo solenne la divinità di Gesù nel momento in cui ha compiuto, come un uomo qualsiasi, il gesto penitenziale, essendosi sottoposto al battesimo di Giovanni. Durante la sua vita terrena, Gesù non si mostrerà mai tanto grande come nell'umiltà dei gesti e delle parole. Seguire Cristo significa intraprendere questo cammino di umiltà, cioè di verità. Cristo, vero Dio e vero uomo, ci insegna la verità del nostro essere. Feriti dal peccato, purificati dal battesimo, noi oscilliamo fra i due estremi, entrambi attraenti, del male e della santità. E questo si vive nella quotidianità più umile. Ad ogni passo possiamo scegliere Dio e il suo amore, o, viceversa, rifiutarlo. Seguire le orme di Gesù, significa assicurarsi un cammino che, nonostante sia stretto e sassoso, conduce alla vita eterna, alla vera beatitudine.

MARY AN ICON OF THE CHURCH THAT BAPTISES

The Virgin Mother not only reveals the Mystery of the Son to believers, but she gives Him to them for all time: indeed, her motherhood is ordered to the continual presence of Christ among humankind. Now since Christ is present among us in a very special way in the liturgy, it is in the sacramental economy that also Mary's mediation acquires meaning. Mary's maternal action in the life of the faithful is expressed supremely well in liturgical actions. Mary's indispensable presence in the historical event which we profess in our baptismal belief (Do you believe in Jesus Christ, who was born of the Virgin Mary?), leads us to reflect on her commemoration in the sacramental event. In fact, reflection on baptismal rebirth developed from the first centuries onwards, in the light of Christ's conception by the power of the Holy Spirit. In Baptism, the Church is naturally oriented to the mystery of Christ's conception from the Virgin who believed. https://www.vatican.va/jubilee_2000

Jesus comes from Galilee to the Jordan River to be baptized by John. John hesitates, saying he should be baptized by Jesus, but "Jesus insists so that God's will may be fulfilled.

After Jesus is baptized, the heavens open, the Holy Spirit descends like a dove, and a voice from heaven declares Jesus as God's beloved Son, with whom He is well pleased". Matthew 3:13-17

After His baptism, Jesus begins His public ministry —preaching, healing, and calling disciples. The feast marks the transition from Jesus' hidden life to His mission of salvation.
